

Go Car-Lite

Join us for Car-Free Weekend @ one-north on 30 and 31 Aug

At the next Car-Free Weekend @ one-north, you can cycle freely on the car-free roads, and enjoy a variety of activities including outdoor movie screenings, virtual reality games and mass workouts. There's something for everyone, so come and be part of the fun!

See the full programme here

Plan our Future SG

Envision the future of the Greater Southern Waterfront

We're planning to shape the Greater Southern Waterfront, which is near the city centre and six times the size of Marina Bay, into a vibrant waterfront area to live, work and play in. Take a look at the plans for this area!

Discover the future possibilities

The past and future of hawker centres

Hawker centres are a symbol of Singapore's heritage and identity. What's in store for this iconic community space in the future? We explore both the past and future of hawker culture, as hawker centres evolve with our city.

Read more

Enliven Public Spaces

Streets For People: Amoy Street

Amoy Street will be buzzing with music, wellness activities and street food on Sunday, 1 September. As part of our Streets For People initiative, this event will see the roads closed to traffic, to give everyone more space to have fun!

Find out more

Fun ideas that connect people in the city

Presenting five creative ideas to encourage more interactions in our city! They're shortlisted from the URA-REDAS SPARK Challenge, an ideas contest to liven up public spaces. Installations are up in various shopping malls, so go try them out and tell us your favourite.

See the installations

Conserve Built Heritage

Mid-Autumn Festival in our Historic District

Join us for a night of lantern making and other Mid-Autumn festivities around Ann Siang and Telok Ayer on Saturday, 7 September! You'll also get to experience Cantonese traditions at a historic Cantonese association at Ann Siang Road.

Register now

The storied places of the Civic District

Many spots around the Civic District are important parts of Singapore's history, and continue to hold many special memories for Singaporeans. There will be four new national monuments added to the area – take a look at where they are!

Discover our new national monuments

Shape a Distinctive City

Presenting our planning story to the world

Recently, we welcomed more than 100 delegates from the signing of the Singapore Convention on Mediation to our Singapore City Gallery. They got to see and hear first-hand the story of Singapore's transformation from mudflats to metropolis, through guided tours by student ambassadors.

Find out more

Events @ The URA Centre

Time & Space: Another Place, Another City

Featuring the works of Visual Arts students from the School of the Arts Singapore (SOTA), the artworks at this exhibition explores the notions of "cities" and proposes new insights to experiencing spaces.

5 September to 9 October 2019 at the City Canvas (Level 3)

See more events taking place at The URA Centre

STUDENTS TELL US:
Why should you visit the Singapore City Gallery?

Information correct at time of dissemination. You are receiving this email because you subscribed to receive updates from Urban Redevelopment Authority.

Copyright © 2019 Urban Redevelopment Authority of Singapore, all rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you opted in via our website.

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.