HDB BRI - SGBC JOINT SEMINAR

CREATING SMART & GREEN HOMES

10 OCTOBER 2019, THURSDAY

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

As the world undergoes its third industrial revolution, we are experiencing advances in new technology that will transform the way we live, work and play. Digital Transformation is the big megatrend that is changing the way we look at buildings. By harnessing the connectivity of the Internet of Things and rethinking the ways we can combine the intelligence of humans with the power of technology, we will then be able to create smart and green homes for all.
