SG:D INDUSTRY DAY
17 Oct 2019

Join us at Singapore Digital (SG:D) Industry Day and co-create the future of the ICM industry!

The Infocomm Media Development Authority (IMDA) welcomes you to participate in SG:D Industry Day, where leading infocomm companies come together to co-create the future. Ranging from deep dive sessions to business opportunities in different markets to going cloud-native and ICM skills, SG:D Industry Day aims to provide the ICM sector with the support and knowledge you need to seize new growth in the digital economy.

This year, SG:D Industry Day is also held in conjunction with FUTR and the Future Economy Conference and Exhibition (FECE), to bring both demand and supply chains in the ICM ecosystem together. Registration for the SG:D Industry Day will hence give you free access to the FUTR exhibition marketplace and FECE conference tracks.

Join us for impactful discussions to drive your business forward!
