15. You should inform foreign employees not to make travel plans to Singapore until you have sought and received approval from MOM. Please ensure that you are able to fulfil additional obligations set out by MOM before requesting for approval to bring foreign employees in. Do note that if your foreign employees have dependants, who are not issued any work passes (including Letter of Consent), these employees must also fulfil their obligations towards their dependants.<sup>13</sup>
16. You are to seek approval from MOM using this online facility. Approval can be sought three days before the intended arrival date of your foreign employees.
17. Those entering Singapore and exhibiting fever and/or other symptoms of respiratory illness are required to undergo a COVID-19 swab test at the checkpoint, regardless of travel history. All such travellers will also be issued a 14-day SHN, which they will have to serve in full even if the test result is negative. Those who meet the clinical suspect case definition will be conveyed to the hospital for follow-up. Please refer to this link on MOH for more details.
18. During the 14-day monitoring period, we encourage you to adopt flexible work arrangements, such as telecommuting and teleconferencing to allow your employees to work from home. If remote working is not possible, you may consider the following options:

  - Treat SHN as paid sick leave;
  - Allow employees to apply for annual leave;
  - Allow employees to apply for no-pay leave for those who have used up their leave entitlements;
  - Other mutually agreed arrangements.

Precautionary Measures for General Employees<sup>15,16</sup>

22. Please remind all employees who have returned to Singapore from overseas (regardless of location) to monitor their health closely and exercise appropriate precautions at all times. They should see a doctor promptly if they are unwell, and inform their doctor of their travel history. Should they have fever or respiratory symptoms (e.g. cough, runny nose, fever, sore throat, breathlessness), they should wear a mask and call a clinic ahead of the visit.
23. Where feasible, we advise you to put in place measures to reduce close contact among employees. For example, by implementing tele-commuting and video-conferencing; staggering work hours and allowing employees to commute at off-peak hours. Seating in meeting rooms and work stations could also be spaced apart. For more information on social distancing measures at the workplace, please refer to this link on the MOM website.
24. We advise you to pay special attention to older employees, pregnant employees and employees who have underlying medical conditions in planning your operations or work schedules. You should reduce exposure of such employees to frontline work, where possible.

Temperature should be taken at least twice daily, and anyone with a fever or is unwell should leave the office immediately to see a doctor. In particular, they should avoid coming into close and sustained proximity with others.<sup>17</sup> For more details, please refer to this advisory.
26. Should you become aware that someone at your workplace is a confirmed or suspect case of COVID-19, you are advised to adopt these measures set out by MOM.

Precautionary Measures for Specific Sectors

28. The MOH has compiled a list of advisories for companies and employees in specific sectors. Please refer to the list here.

Precautions for Events and Mass Gatherings<sup>18,19</sup>

29. MOH has introduced new requirements to limit large crowds gathering in close proximity over a prolonged duration.<sup>20</sup> We advise businesses to cancel or defer organising events with 250 participants or more. For events that have already been committed (e.g. tickets sold), you must demonstrate that satisfactory precautionary measures have been put in place before you can proceed.
30. If you are holding other mass gatherings including private functions, we advise you to put in place the following precautions:
- Reduce the scale of events to below 250 participants where possible;
  - Reduce the crowding of participants and improve ventilation. For example, participants could be seated at least a metre apart from one another, and be advised to reduce contact with others (e.g. avoid shaking hands);
  - Put in place temperature and health screening measures, as well as turn away persons who are unwell; and

Collective Effort to Keep Singapore Clean<sup>21,22</sup>

31. We encourage your business to commit and adhere to sector-specific sanitation and hygiene checklists under the “SG Clean” certification programme. Businesses that meet the necessary requirements can qualify for an “SG Clean” quality mark to be displayed at their premises. These efforts are part of the “SG Clean” campaign led by the NEA, together with multiple agencies including ESG, to rally businesses to commit to upholding good hygiene practices. You may find more information on “SG Clean” here.

Impact on Businesses

32. The Government has introduced measures at Budget 2020 to help companies and workers weather near-term uncertainties. These include:

- Additional support for sectors directly affected by COVID-19 i.e. tourism, aviation, retail, food services and point-to-point transport services.<sup>23</sup>

33. As businesses seek to adjust to the changing operating environment, we strongly encourage employers to take a long-term view of their manpower needs. When managing excess manpower, retrenchment should always be the last resort, after other options have been considered and found to be unworkable<sup>24</sup>. For appropriate measures to manage excess manpower, you may refer to the Tripartite Advisory on Managing Excess Manpower and Responsible Retrenchment.

34. If you have 10 or more employees and have implemented any cost-saving measures that affects your employees’ monthly salaries (including bonuses and increments) during this period, you are required to notify MOM through this online form – within 1 week after implementation. This temporary requirement is in place to encourage
