

ACES Free Webinar: New COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020, and Its Legal Implications on Construction and Supply Contract

Date: 2nd July 2020 (Thu)

Fee: Free of Charge

Time: 2.00 pm to 3.15 pm (SGT)
(Last 15 mins Q & A)

Delivery Mode: Zoom Webinar

Please Click Here to Register

The link to join the webinar will be sent to you in the confirmation email upon registration.

ASSOCIATION OF
CONSULTING ENGINEERS
SINGAPORE

For enquiry please email:
secretariat@aces.org.sg

About the Talk

The Singapore Parliament has passed the COVID-19 (Temporary Measures) Act 2020 (Act) in April this year which seeks to offer temporary relief to businesses and individuals who are unable to perform their contractual obligations due on or after 1st February 2020 because of COVID-19.

The talk will cover what reliefs consultants can look forward in the light of the Act?

- What are your legal obligations for supply and construction contract?
- The types of reliefs that are granted during this interim period?

About the Speaker

Mr. David Shanmugam has many years of legal practice in the private sector and is presently working in a legal firm. He is also an Advocate & Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore.

He regularly conducts legal seminars and workshops for Directors, HR and Finance professionals on business and company law as well as various practical legal issues faced by corporate individuals. His forte is in the field of corporate and commercial drafting of contracts, including commercial company matters. Over the years, he has also conducted many in-house training for high profile corporate clients.

David has a LLB (Honours) from the University of London and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from Victoria University.