

SGBC Webinar: Stay Connected

Safeguarding Public Health through the Workplace

The emphasis on human health and wellbeing has never been greater in the wake of the global coronavirus pandemic, with cleanliness and hygiene becoming key weapons in addressing public health concerns. The built environment sector must step up to deliver healthy, equitable, resilient spaces and places for people to resume their lives.

In this 3-part webinar series, dive into the intricacies of what is now the new normal for the foreseeable future. From enhancing workplace wellness to determining if a place is sufficiently clean, gather insights, best practices and industry intelligence from our speakers to adapt facilities and workplaces for the new normal.
