Dear members,

We are pleased to announce that registration for The Singapore WSH conference 2020 is now open. You may register your details, select your Conference pass type and make payment on the Conference website.

As a member of Association of Consulting Engineers Singapore, you are entitled to use the exclusive Conference Partner’s referral code (WSHCACES101) to enjoy savings at $133 per participant when you sign up for individual Conference passes. The standard individual conference pass is priced at SGD$220 per participant.

If you are registering as a group of 3 participants or more, you also get to enjoy this exclusive rate of $133 per participant. Simply select the ‘Group’ option on the registration page for an easier registration process for multiple participants.

Please remember to use the referral code before you proceed to make payment on the portal.

Did you know?

Recently, 83% of respondents to a McKinsey survey said they would hire more people for health and safety roles.

As our world becomes increasingly digital, we see how the emergence of new technologies influence the nature of our jobs in a way unseen in the past decade. Participants who attend The Singapore WSH Conference 2020 will see how technology can play a critical role in reducing accident risks caused by human errors, replacing dangerous work activities, preventing potential lapses, and providing real-time insight into worker's behaviours.

On the topic of Technology

The Conference registration is now open

At The Singapore Workplace Safety and Health (WSH) Conference, we will discuss the broad topics of Health, Ownership and Technology in WSH in these COVID-19 times. As the premier platform for workplace and health stakeholders across the region, this Conference will bring together regulators, industry leaders and safety professionals to share with you how you can navigate through the different facets of WSH to create a safer and healthier workplace.

We are pleased to announce that The Singapore WSH Conference, 17-18 November 2020, is now open for registration! Get your tickets today.

Find out if your association or organisation is a Conference Partner from the Conference website to enjoy savings when you sign up. Browse our list of 30 Conference Partners here.

Individual NTUC members can apply for the Union Training Assistance Programme (UTAP) when signing up for the Conference. Check out the UTAP funding here.
