

Towards WSH 2028:
Significance of Technological Advancements in MEWPs

31 August 2021 (Tuesday),
2.00pm to 5.00pm

IPAF & SISO Members : Free of Charge |
Non-member: $64.20 incl GST + 1 year SISO membership

SDU Points: 3 SDUs

Organised by:

Supported by:

Learning from “Talknology”

In 1993, Mr Jason Anker fell from a ladder while working and was thus paralyzed from the waist down. Since then, his life trajectory had completely changed. Mr Anker is now a renowned safety motivational speaker who is actively advocating workplace safety. He will be sharing his experiences in workplace safety advocacy at this webinar.

Jason Anker MBE
Founder, Proud2bSafe

Programme

2.00 pm	Opening Remarks Mr Abu Bakar Mohd Nor, Chairman, WSH Council (National Work at Heights Safety) Taskforce
	Launch of IPAF Operator Refresher Course
	MEWP Trainings -How Technology-enabled Are We Now? by Mr Raymond Wat, Regional General Manager, IPAF
	Innovative Wearable that Alerts MEWP Operators of Overhead Hazards by Mr Peter Ellis, Managing Director, H4LO Safety
	National WSH Campaign Care Time
	Future of MEWP Technology -How do we get there? by Mr Caesar Tanquingcen, Product Manager, Oshkosh-JLG
	Learning from Technology-“Talknology” - An Inspirational sharing on his life after a tragic fall at work. by Mr Jason Anker MBE, Founder, Proud2bSafe
	Q & A Session
5.00 pm	End of Webinar

*This is a tentative programme and is subject to changes.