RIDING THE WAVES OF RESEARCH AND INNOVATION (R&I) TO BUILD SG

As we transit towards a new phase of COVID-19 becoming endemic, we need to rethink the current ways, reimagine the new future and resume the conversations on how we can continue to be relevant in these ever-evolving times.

Through the sharing of innovative and advanced technology, and exemplary practices, the BuildSG LEAD Forum seeks to engage and foster closer collaboration amongst the leaders in the Built Environment (BE).

In this upcoming session, we will share how research and innovation (R&I) will be one of the key transformation areas for the future and how we can leverage it to advance the BE sector. Jointly organised by BCA and JTC, we bring together stakeholders from Government Procuring Entities (GPEs), private developers, consultants and builders, to share more about the vision and adoption of R&I in the Built Environment.
