

World Cities Summit 2022 Liveable and Sustainable Cities: Emerging Stronger

31 July to 3 August 2022
Sands Expo and Convention Centre, Marina Bay Sands, Singapore

April 2022

Registration for WCS 2022 is Now Open!

The World Cities Summit returns from 31 July - 3 August 2022 at Marina Bay Sands Expo and Convention Centre as an in-person event. Themed "Liveable and Sustainable Cities: Emerging Stronger", WCS 2022 focuses on how cities can emerge stronger through prolonged and unpredictable disruptions.

The 4-day event comprises the main conference and other key events such as the WCS Mayors Forum, WCS Young Leaders Symposium, the Lee Kuan Yew World Prize Lecture and our expo.

Through the plenaries and tracks of the main conference, delegates will engage with the theme on how cities can emerge stronger from contemporary disruptions across five tracks: Sustainable Financing, Smart Cities, Development and Planning, Urban Resilience and Liveable Future Cities.

Conference delegates can also participate in site visits to experience in person how Singapore is a Sustainable, Liveable and Loveable City.

Registration is now open and we invite you to join us at WCS 2022!

Update on Singapore's Covid-19 situation

There has been significant improvement in the Covid-19 situation in Singapore. Here is the latest news on the easing of restrictions.

Travelling to Singapore for WCS2022 is now much easier with the new Vaccinated Travel Framework! From 26 April 2022, all fully vaccinated visitors from any country or region can enter Singapore without undergoing a pre-departure Covid-19 test and quarantine upon arrival.

Refresh and Recall

WCS 2021 was a hybrid event due to the Covid-19 pandemic, and it has been four years since the Summit was held in person.

In anticipation of this year's return to a physical format, here's a recap of the highlights from 2018
