

To the attention of FIDIC members

Dear All,

As you may have seen on the FIDIC website, the annual awards are back for 2023!

The awards will be recognised at the traditional FIDIC Awards Gala Dinner taking place on Tuesday, 12 September in Singapore as part of the FIDIC Global Infrastructure Conference.

We encourage you to submit nominations before the 29nd of May 2023.

For your convenience, please find below a summary of the information provided online.

FIDIC Project Awards

These awards recognise, highlight and reward the achievements and successes of consulting engineering firms across the globe and the important impact their projects have on social, economic and environmental quality of life around the world.

Project submittals should demonstrate, in addition to the quality of the design and construction and positive economic impact, how their project addresses environmental and social safeguards, sustainability, benefits and impacts on society, UN SDGs and climate change effects. Projects of all sizes (large and small) will be considered.

FIDIC Member Association Excellence Awards

These awards, which recognise the work that MAs do representing the global consulting engineering industry, reward and celebrate the many different facets of members' work.

FIDIC in 2023 also turns 110 years old and in recognition of this massive achievement and the continued support we have had from all our member associations over the years we want to recognise their continued work and great achievements.

There are no specific categories in the awards and entries can reflect any aspect of MAs' work or their initiatives to give member associations of all sizes and scale the opportunity to win.

FIDIC Future Leaders Awards

These awards acknowledge and promote the remarkable achievements of future leaders in the consulting engineering industry worldwide and encourage effective participation of future leaders in FIDIC.

The Future Leaders Awards celebrate significant achievement and provides a range of benefits including encouraging future leaders to become more active and understand their responsibility for the future of the industry, raising awareness amongst FIDIC member associations and their member firms to be more aware of and positive towards future leaders' activities, showcases best practices to other future leaders, FIDIC member associations and their member firms and demonstrates the key role of FIDIC in empowering future leaders all over the world.
