FLMC Programme overview

This FIDIC Academy education and training strives to strengthen the business expertise of engineers and other professionals. It also offers networking opportunities and an insight into FIDIC's global activities, including attendance at FIDIC annual Global Infrastructure Conference. The main body of the course entails six live webinars, bespoke case studies followed by a final knowledge check in order to obtain the FIDIC certificate of completion.

The industry-leading online management learning programme for rising engineers and other consulting professionals run by FIDIC, the Future Leaders Management Course (FLMC), has been officially accredited by the CPD Certification Service.

Graduates of the FLMC programme are entitled to participate in the activities of FIDIC's Future Leaders Group led by the Future Leaders Council (FLC). The group aims to promote and empower Future Leaders (FLs) within the FIDIC community to participate effectively in shaping the future of the Consulting Engineering Industry and provide networking opportunities and regular get-togethers.

Course objectives

The objectives of this course are to familiarise engineering professionals in the consulting industry with the principles of FIDIC and an overview of the business realities and management of successfully running a consulting practice. This course is attended by participants from all over the world and provides great networking opportunities and cultural exchanges.

FIDIC Global Infrastructure Conference 2023

Participants in FLMC have a unique opportunity to engage professionally with course trainers and fellow professionals at the final two-day session held at the annual FIDIC Global Infrastructure Conference 2023 in Singapore, bringing together over 30 nationalities to discuss a variety of approaches to the management issues discussed across the course. This offers an unrivalled networking opportunity for future international cooperation as consultants. Participants will prepare and deliver a presentation at the conference to industry leaders on their perception of the challenges as future leaders in the consulting industry.

FIDIC's Annual Global Infrastructure Conference 2023 is offered to participants of the FLMC at a discounted rate. Conference registration details available here.
