

Greetings, Safety Advocates!

World of Safety and Health Asia presents another fascinating edition of the magazine to all safety professionals worldwide! In conjunction to the World Day for Safety and Health at Work on 28th April, let us act together to build a positive safety and health culture at our workplace 😊

Have you noticed our improved design for a satisfying user experience of the eMagazine? Now, this quick and easy layout will ensure that you get all the information you need to keep yourself up to date with the OSH industry. That's right, with just a snap of your fingertips you can have it all in your hands!

In our April 2023 issue, discover what's new in the world of first aid and emergency response, as well as stay up to date on issues such as Sustainability, Digital Safety, Millennials as OSH Leaders and other noteworthy topics.

If you missed the March podcast episode, fret not, you will have the chance to listen to them again! Featuring, Michelle Lam, the Head of Occupational Safety and Health, Asia Pacific Africa Region with ThyssenKrupp based in Singapore, Bonnie Yau, the Executive Director of Occupational Safety and Health Council in Hong Kong SAR and Alanna Ball, the Founder of Women in Safety based in Australia. Learn more about their experience and challenges faced by being a woman in the male-dominated OSH industry in their regions.

Don't miss out on another amazing edition! Stay safe at all times.
