

BCA ACADEMY

ELEVATE YOUR PROJECT MANAGEMENT SKILLS

The Graduate Diploma in Project Management (GDPM) is a partnership programme between Singapore University of Social Sciences (SUSS) and BCA Academy (BCAA) that equips students with a repertoire of specialist knowledge and skills for productive management of projects.

Under GDPM, the two courses “Project Risk Management in Construction Projects” and “Collaborative Contracting in Built Environment” respectively equip students with the skills to manage the risks in construction projects and knowledge in contractual framework for Collaborative Contracting.
