FIDIC Asia Pacific

EMERGING Leaders' Award

1. Background

The AFLEC (Asia Pacific Future Leaders' Executive Committee) is the group of Future Leaders (Young Professionals) of the FIDIC Asia Pacific (FAP) regional body of International Federation of Consulting Engineers (FIDIC). It was formed with the intention of providing Future Leaders (FLs) with the opportunities to participate in FAP and to develop the consulting engineering industry. It is run by a committee of FAP Future Leader volunteers. Key activities were identified as Research, Education and Networking.

To further support, acknowledge, and promote the efforts of Future leaders in the industry, the ASPAC YP Award has been established in 2020 and now it was renamed FAP Emerging Leaders' Award.

2. Purpose

The purpose of the FAP Emerging Leaders' Award is to acknowledge and promote the remarkable achievements of FLs in the Consultancy Engineering industry, and encourage effective participation of FLs in FAP. The award is expected to provide the following benefits:

- FLs become more active and understand their responsibility for the future of the industry.
- FAP Member Associations (MAs) and Member Firms become more aware and positive of FL activities in general, with special focus on related FL activities.
- Showcase best practices to others FLs, MAs, Member firms.

3. Eligibility

In order to be eligible for the FAP Emerging Leaders' Award, the candidate shall meet the following criteria:

- Candidates are either individual members or working for a company which is a member of MA,
- Candidates shall be 40 years of age or younger.
