Subject: [New Podcast] Is Stronger WSH in Procurement the Key to a Safer Construction Industry?

Dear Members of the WSH Council (Construction and Landscape) Committee,

To widen our reach and build rapport with our audience, WSH Council will be producing a series of podcasts to amplify WSH messaging to the industry. The podcast series will feature WSH experts and opinion leaders discussing insights, trends as well as thought leadership in the WSH scene. Unlike other content formats, podcasts allow for longer and in-depth discussions. This would enable us to explore complex and trending topics, share detailed insights, and have meaningful conversations that resonate with our audience on a personal level.

For our inaugural podcast, we were honoured to have our guests, Mr Tan Swee Yiow, President of the Real Estate Developers' Association of Singapore (REDAS), and Mr Lee Kay Chai, President of The Singapore Contractors Association Ltd (SCAL). They shared their insights on how private developers can integrate WSH principles into procurement processes for construction projects and the mutual benefits for developers and contractors.

Watch the podcast to learn how developers can enhance their projects by demonstrating strong WSH ownership and how contractors can improve their chances of winning contracts and earning safety bonuses through a proven track record of WSH excellence.
