

Final Chance to Secure your Place at The Singapore WSH Conference 2026

The Singapore WSH Conference 2026 is just around the corner. Taking place on 23 July, this flagship event brings together industry leaders, partners and WSH professionals to exchange insights, build connections and shape stronger Workplace and Safety (WSH) outcomes. Partners who have yet to register are encouraged to secure their seats now and enjoy the preferential rate before it ends.

Whether you are attending as a WSH practitioner or a senior decision maker, the Conference is designed to help you translate key WSH challenges, trends, and priorities into meaningful action.

Featuring over 20 distinguished speakers across 2 keynotes, 2 plenaries and 4 symposiums, the programme brings together cross-sector insights on strengthening safety culture, anticipating emerging risks, and building healthier, more resilient workplaces.

What you will gain:

- Practical ways to turn leadership intent into day-to-day WSH practices
- Forward-looking approaches to managing emerging risks — from heat stress to AI adoption — before they outpace your existing frameworks
- Evidence-based approaches to embed well-being into daily operations and strengthen workforce resilience

Exclusive for Association of Consulting Engineers Singapore Members

Enjoy a preferential rate of S$550 (incl. GST) per ticket by using invitation code [SWSHC26ACES] during registration.

Register by 3 July to enjoy a savings up to $400!
