SIEW SUMMIT DAY 2 (27 OCT)

Three International Forums. One Strategic Day to Access Them All.

Day 2 of the SIEW Summit brings the world's leading international organisations into one room — the International Energy Agency (IEA), International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA) and International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA). This is your opportunity to gain perspectives across energy security, renewable energy development and nuclear readiness within one day.

MORNING | SINGAPORE-IEA FORUM

How can connected systems support a more secure and resilient energy future?

The morning begins with discussions on LNG and gas security, electricity security, resilient infrastructure and the ASEAN Power Grid. Policymakers, industry leaders and international partners will examine how regional cooperation, technology and stronger system connections can support energy security across ASEAN and beyond.

Confirmed speakers include:
