One Day. Three Global Perspectives. The Energy Future in Focus.

On 27 October, SIEW Summit Day 2 brings together the International Energy Agency (IEA), International Renewable Energy Agency (IRENA) and International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) for a day of high-level dialogue on three areas shaping the energy landscape.

From energy security and renewable investment to nuclear readiness, gain perspectives from leading international organisations, policymakers and industry experts — all in one day.

SINGAPORE-INTERNATIONAL ENERGY AGENCY (IEA) FORUM

How can connected systems support a more secure and resilient energy future?

The morning begins with discussions on LNG and gas security, electricity security, resilient infrastructure and the ASEAN Power Grid. Policymakers, industry leaders and international partners will explore the issues shaping energy security across ASEAN and beyond.
