Dear Associations

Online Interim Conference Hosted by CEAT

Consulting Engineers Association of Thailand (CEAT) is hosting the “Online Interim Conference” on July 30, 2021 under the theme “New Normal in Engineering Consultancy, CSR: Crisis, Survival and Resilience.” Registration is free. In the situation of the Covid-19 Pandemic, the webinar via Zoom Application, is expected to help fostering collaborative relations of distinct Consulting Engineers in Thailand and FIDIC organization and members.

The event allows them to share knowledge and experience in dealing with the pandemic and seeking to sustain the industry. CEAT would like you to please advertise the event to your entire association members who certainly would benefit from attending. I am confident that this event help all the participants get through this challenging crisis successfully.

Thank you much for your attention to this letter. I apologize for this short notice. CEAT and I are looking forward to hearing from you. We wish all the members can participate and join hands in getting through the situation together.

Please find attached further information on the free-registration Conference.

Sincerely yours,

Chawalit Chantararat

President,

The Consulting Engineers Association of Thailand
